Longer Bio

Gayla Metzendorf is a Christian author, teacher, and the founder of DivinelyDesigned60, a ministry and online sacred space built for structured spiritual growth rooted in Scripture. Her work exists to cultivate depth, alignment, and restoration in the lives of readers who are ready to move beyond surface-level faith into real, sustained intimacy with God.

Gayla is the author of six books and workbooks. Back to Eden, rooted in the story of Job, explores how loss, silence, and suffering shape the soul, and how God meets us in each of those places to restore what was lost. Before Eden There Was God and What Are You Seeing... What Is Real? are guided, Scripture-based workbooks walking readers through Revelation, teaching discernment in a world of noise and competing voices. 31-Days in Proverbs is a month-long devotional for practical, everyday wisdom. Solomon's Garden and Song of Solomon are contemplative literary works inspired by the Song of Solomon, exploring longing, surrender, and intimacy with God through symbolic storytelling.

Beyond her books, Gayla writes Morning Talk with the Holy Spirit, a 365-day devotional series, and leads The Garden Room, a 12-month guided journey of healing and restoration. She curates a prayer library of more than 350 Spirit-led prayers across 35 topics, teaches verse-by-verse Bible studies, and offers one-on-one faith-based mentorship and healing art therapy.

Gayla's calling is to create spiritual structure: not performance-driven faith, but rooted faith; not shallow inspiration, but lasting alignment with who God designed us to be. She lives out that calling through writing, teaching, and walking alongside readers who are ready for honest, unhurried transformation.

Books

Back to Eden

Ebook $9.99 · Paperback $14.95

Rooted in the story of Job and the echo of Eden, Back to Eden walks through the unraveling of what was once whole and the journey back to the presence of God — how loss, silence, and suffering shape the soul, and how God meets us there to restore what was lost. It is a path away from striving and back to presence, away from control and back to surrender: restoration not just of what was lost, but of who you were created to be.

Before Eden, There Was God

Ebook $9.99 · Paperback $10.99

A Scripture-based study journeying through Revelation 1–5, helping readers see God clearly before anything else is formed. It examines not just the text but the reader's own perception — how they hear, interpret, and respond to God's voice. This is where discernment begins: not in noise, but in clarity. (A companion workbook edition is also available separately — see below.)

Before Eden, There Was God — Workbook

Paperback $13.99

What Are You Seeing... What Is Real?

Ebook $9.99 · Paperback $19.99

A Scripture-rooted journey through Revelation 6–15 that challenges readers to look again — not with assumption, but with discernment shaped by the Word of God. Rather than end-time speculation, it anchors readers in the unshakable reality of Christ, teaching them to recognize the difference between what appears powerful and what is truly authoritative.

31-Days in Proverbs

Ebook $9.99 · Paperback $11.99

A 31-day devotional walking through the book of Proverbs, offering daily wisdom for practical, grounded, everyday faith — a simple, steady rhythm for building wisdom into ordinary life.

Solomon's Garden

Ebook $9.99 · Paperback $15.99

Inspired by the mystery and symbolism of the Song of Solomon, Solomon's Garden is a contemplative literary journey exploring longing, awakening, surrender, and intimacy. Through symbolic storytelling, it invites readers inward toward healing and wholeness — into the quiet places where God still walks among the gardens of the heart.

Song of Solomon

Paperback $31.99 · New release

A verse-by-verse allegorical study exploring the Song of Solomon as a picture of Christ's relationship with His people. Moving beyond a purely romantic interpretation, this study uncovers the spiritual journey of intimacy, surrender, growth, and restoration found throughout Scripture, inviting readers to discover deeper truths about God's love, His pursuit of His Bride, and His desire to draw every believer into a closer walk with Him. Ideal for individual or group study, it offers biblical insight, thoughtful reflection, and practical application to strengthen faith and deepen understanding of God's Word.
